

The Sabbath Family-Values Review

A standing rest-day review of what your house stands for.

Rest isn't idle. On the Sabbath the captain reviews the family values — are we living them? — and lets the week's sails settle. A recurring, gentle review, not a performance audit.

Action checklist

- Write your family values once — 3–5 of them, Claude as scribe. Post them where the family sees them.
- Set a recurring Sabbath trigger (Calendar event, or a 'Values review' Habitify habit).
- Each Sabbath, read them aloud and ask: "Where did we live this? Where did we miss?" — no scorekeeping.
- Carry one value into the coming week as the family's focus.

THE SIXTH SAIL

Family Values, reviewed on the day of rest. The Sabbath is where the captain remembers what the whole voyage is for.

Scripture sit

Exodus 20:8 — "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy." The review is rest, not work.

What I noticed

Captain's next move
