The captain has a daily rhythm. AI runs alongside it, not over it. Build the rhythm first. The model fits inside.

- Write one prompt template you'll use every morning. Inputs:
 - Today's calendar (paste it)
 - Top 3 priorities
 - One verse you're sitting in
- Output: a 5-line plan you can read in 30 seconds.
- Use it tomorrow. Adjust by Friday.
- Bonus: ask Claude to flag the priority you're most likely to ditch when you're tired.
