

Teach One Person, This Week

Not all of it. One thing. The smallest faithful thing.

Most captains finish bootcamps and tell no one. They keep the gold and bury it. Don't. The 2 Timothy 2:2 chain breaks if you don't pass it.

Action checklist

- Pick someone — wife, older kid, brother, mentee, pastor.
- Teach them ONE thing you learned in the last 5 weeks. Not all of it. One thing.
- Make them do it once with you watching. That's how multiplication actually happens.
- Post their first name in the bootcamp comments. Accountability.

Why this is the hardest task

The chain breaks in your generation if you don't pass it. Teaching one person beats finishing the bootcamp solo.
