

THE FAMILY CAPTAIN AI BOOT CAMP

The Captain's Field Packet.

All seven weeks, one page each. Print it, put it on the fridge, and run the whole bootcamp off paper — the website is just where you tap the dot. Any one SACA completes a week; the recommended one is the week's sail.

The 7 Sails — one raised per week

Week 1 · Vision	The Wheelhouse — Creed + Captain's Log
Week 2 · Body	The Captain's Log — one body line a day
Week 3 · Spiritual	The 5:25 Prayer — ask daily, review weekly
Week 4 · Husbanding	The Weekly Family Meeting
Week 5 · Fathering	The Monthly Family Survey
Week 6 · Finance	The Family Values — the storehouse obeys them
Week 7 · Sabbath	The Nightly Gratitude Journal (the 7th sail)

THE CAPTAIN'S DAY

0600 Creed · 5:25 Prayer · 9:00 Gratitude. Three alarms, three sails, every day. The tool drafts and reminds; the captain decides, prays, and leads.

One week, one sail: the Wheelhouse.

Sail of the Week: The Wheelhouse (Creed + Log) · Habakkuk 2:2 · Rule: ONE SACA completes the week — do more only if you want to.

What you need: your iPhone, a free Claude account (claude.ai), 30 focused minutes on Monday, 2 minutes a morning after that.

MONDAY — Write the Creed + start the Log (30 min)

- 1. Open Claude and paste: “Interview me on my identity in Christ, my marriage, my fathering, and how I lead my home; then draft a creed grouped by those domains — present and future tense, one Scripture anchor per section, ending on a line of grace. I'll edit every word.”
- 2. Edit every word. It's covenant, not hype — keep only lines you'll stand under.
- 3. Start your Captain's Log — one note (or Habitify): today's actions, one line each.

TUESDAY — Automate the morning send (10 min)

- 4. Shortcuts app → Automation → + → Time of Day → 6:00 AM, Daily → Show Notification → paste your Creed (or its opening lines).
- 5. Run it once to test. Tomorrow it runs itself.

WEDNESDAY–SATURDAY — Live in the Wheelhouse (2 min a morning)

- 6. 0600: read the Creed when it lands. Out loud is better.
- 7. Then write today's Log — the day's actions, one line each. Who you are, then what you'll do.

SUNDAY — Sabbath

- 8. Drill off. Open the Captain's Chart, tap the dot on SACA 3 — Build Your Wheelhouse → week complete. (“One SACA is enough — skip the rest.”)

THE LINE TO HOLD

Creed + Log are two of the seven sails at once — the fastest leverage in the whole course. — “Write the vision; make it plain... that he may run who reads it.” (Habakkuk 2:2)

Want more this week? (all optional — the week is already complete)

SACA 1 — Draft Your AI Charter. Five lines: what AI is for in your life, what it never replaces. Post one line in the cohort.

SACA 2 — Write Your 5-Year Captain's Vision. One paragraph each: marriage, fathering, body, money, spirit. AI drafts; you cut every wish that isn't a decision.

Going Further. Build Your Tool Stack; the 7 daily drills live on the Week 1 page under “Optional depth.”

WEEK 2 · BODY — THE CAPTAIN'S WEEK RUNNER

One week, one sail: the Captain's Log.

Sail of the Week: The Captain's Log (applied) · 1 Corinthians 6:19–20 · Rule: ONE SACA completes the week.

What you need: your iPhone, the Log you started Week 1, ~1 minute a day, 10 minutes Sunday evening.

MONDAY — Set it up (10 min)

- 1. Decide where the body line lives: your Captain's Log note, or a Habitify habit named “Body line.”
- 2. Write the first one — one sentence: sleep, training, fuel, energy. (e.g. “6.5 hrs · walked 2 mi · too much coffee · 6/10.”)
- 3. Set a recurring Sunday-evening reminder: “Body review — 10 min.”

TUESDAY–SATURDAY — Run it (1 min a day)

- 4. One body line a day, in the Log. Honest beats impressive.

SUNDAY EVENING — The review (10 min)

- 5. Paste the week's lines into Claude: “Flag the ONE change with the highest return.”
- 6. Log that ONE change as the coming week's habit. Not two. One.
- 7. Mark the Chart: SACA 3 — Automate Your Weekly Body Review → week complete.

THE LINE TO HOLD

One change a week is unrecognizable in a year. Ten at once is how men quit by Wednesday. — “Your body is a temple... glorify God in your body.” (1 Corinthians 6:19–20)

Want more this week? (all optional — the week is already complete)

SACA 1 — Weekly Movement Practice. 3× strength + 2× walking, on the calendar this week. Show up imperfectly.

SACA 2 — Captain's Meal Plan. Protein-forward week: AI drafts 7 dinners + grocery list; whoever shops, collaborates.

Going Further. 5-Night Sleep Audit; the 7 daily drills live under “Optional depth.”

One week, one sail: the 5:25 Prayer.

Sail of the Week: The 5:25 Prayer · Joshua 1:8 · Rule: ONE SACA completes the week — do more only if you want to.

What you need: your iPhone, 15 minutes on Monday, ~2 minutes a day after that. No website, no AI required until Saturday — and even then it's optional.

MONDAY — Set it up (15 min)

- 1. Open the Clock app → Alarms → + → 5:25 PM, Repeat: Every Day. Label it with your standing prayer (e.g. "Pray: wife, kids, one brother").
- 2. Start your prayer list — one note in Apple Notes titled "5:25 Prayer List." One line per request, with the date. (Habitify works too.)
- 3. Add a Saturday reminder or calendar event: "Answered-Prayer Review — 10 min."

TUESDAY–FRIDAY — Run it (2 min a day)

- 4. When the 5:25 alarm fires: stop, pray through the list. Out loud if you can.
- 5. New request that day? Add a line. Keep lines short.

SATURDAY — Close the loop (10 min)

- 6. Read the list. Mark what God answered — write "ANSWERED" + the date on the line.
- 7. Thank Him out loud for each one. This is the half men skip. Don't.
- 8. Optional AI step: paste the list into Claude: "Read my prayer list back to me. What am I asking for most — and what has God already answered?"
- 9. Optional: call one brother. Recap the week, swap requests, pray together.

SUNDAY — Sabbath

- 10. Drill off. Rest. Sometime today, open the Captain's Chart, tap the dot on SACA 3 — The 5:25 Prayer Loop → week complete.

THE LINE TO HOLD

AI fetches the cross-reference. It never prays for you. You lead; the Spirit teaches. — "This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night." (Joshua 1:8)

Want more this week? (all optional — the week is already complete)

SACA 1 — 10-Min Scripture Study, You Lead. Read a short passage aloud twice. Claude for context and cross-references ONLY. Write your own one-sentence application.

SACA 2 — Family Devotion Generator. Sunday's sermon notes → one verse, one illustration, one question per kid, one prayer prompt. Run it Friday night.

Going Further. Sermon Notes → 5 Captain's Actions; the 7 daily drills live under "Optional depth."

One week, one sail: the Weekly Family Meeting.

Sail of the Week: The Weekly Family Meeting · Ephesians 5:25–28 · Rule: ONE SACA completes the week.

What you need: your iPhone + Calendar, your wife's buy-in, 15 minutes Monday, 20 minutes for the meeting itself.

MONDAY — Put it on the calendar (15 min)

- 1. Ask your wife: what 20-minute slot works every week? (Sunday dinner? Thursday after bedtime?) Her buy-in is half the meeting.
- 2. Create the recurring Calendar event — 20 minutes, same time weekly, whole crew.
- 3. Save this prompt in Claude: "Draft our family meeting agenda: wins this week · what's ahead · one decision we need to make · one prayer."

DAY BEFORE THE MEETING (5 min)

- 4. Run the saved prompt — tell Claude what actually happened this week. Cut anything that doesn't sound like you.

MEETING DAY (20 min)

- 5. Run it. Wins first. One decision max. End on the prayer — every time.
- 6. Tick "Family Meeting held" (Habitify) when it's done. The streak is the accountability.

SUNDAY — Sabbath

- 7. Mark the Chart: SACA 3 — Stand Up the Weekly Family Meeting → week complete.

THE LINE TO HOLD

AI builds the agenda; you build the men and women at the table. The tool never sits at the head. — "Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church." (Ephesians 5:25)

Want more this week? (all optional — the week is already complete)

SACA 1 — The 5-Minute Wife Audit. Ask AI how your wife would describe this month from her chair. A mirror for you — never a script for her.

SACA 2 — Prep One Hard Conversation. AI is the prep room, not the pulpit. Have the conversation without AI in the room.

Going Further. Letter to Your Wife; the 7 daily drills live under "Optional depth."

One week, one sail: the Monthly Family Survey.

Sail of the Week: The Monthly Family Survey · Deuteronomy 6:6–7 · Rule: ONE SACA completes the week.

What you need: your iPhone, 15 minutes Monday, one dinner this week.

MONDAY — Build the survey (15 min)

- 1. Claude: "Help me write 4–5 family survey questions my kids (give their ages) and wife can answer honestly — How's home? What's hard right now? What do you need more of from Dad?"
- 2. Cut to the 4–5 that sound like your house.
- 3. Set the recurring monthly trigger — same day each month (Calendar, or a "Family survey" Habitify habit).

THIS WEEK — Take the pulse

- 4. Collect answers — around the dinner table, or on paper if they'll be more honest. Don't defend. Don't fix. Just collect.
- 5. Paste the answers into Claude: "What's the one thing my family is telling me?"
- 6. Act on the one thing before next month's survey — and tell them what you heard.

SUNDAY — Sabbath

- 7. Mark the Chart: SACA 2 — Run the Monthly Family Survey → week complete.

THE LINE TO HOLD

"He who answers a matter before he hears it, it is folly." (Proverbs 18:13) The survey is how you hear — and the month you 'remember to' is the month you won't. Set it to recur.

Want more this week? (all optional — the week is already complete)

SACA 1 — 3 Questions for the Dinner Table. Three age-appropriate questions per kid. Ask one tonight. Listen; one follow-up; don't fix.

SACA 3 — Write Your Family AI Policy. Built WITH the kids: what AI is for in our home, what it's not for, the rule if someone breaks it. Sign it; fridge it.

Going Further. Build a Family Rhythm Asset; the 7 daily drills live under "Optional depth."

One week, one sail: the Family Values.

Sail of the Week: The Family Values · Matthew 6:21 · Rule: ONE SACA completes the week.

What you need: your iPhone, last month's bank/card statements, ~35 minutes spread over three short sittings, 10 minutes a month after.

MONDAY — Name what the house stands for (15 min)

- 1. Claude as scribe: "Help me write our 3–5 Family Values — short, declarative lines my kids could memorize." You declare; it tightens.
- 2. Post them where the family sees them — fridge, frame, lock screen.

TUESDAY — Find the leaks (10 min)

- 3. List every recurring charge: bank + card statements, plus Settings → [your name] → Subscriptions (Apple) and Google subscriptions.

WEDNESDAY — Run the first sweep (10 min)

- 4. Set the recurring monthly trigger: "Storehouse sweep."
- 5. Paste the list into Claude (names + amounts ONLY — never card numbers): "Judge each charge against these values. Which serves them? Cut one that doesn't."
- 6. Cancel one dead charge today. Screenshot the confirmation.

AT THE FAMILY MEETING + SUNDAY

- 7. Read one value out loud at this week's Family Meeting. Values reviewed stay alive.
- 8. Mark the Chart: SACA 2 — The Values-Run Storehouse → week complete.

THE LINE TO HOLD

"For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." (Matthew 6:21) The storehouse is a discipleship document — money follows values, yours or somebody else's.

Want more this week? (all optional — the week is already complete)

SACA 1 — Tithe-First Budget. Giving (10%+) is line one; everything else fits underneath. If 10% feels impossible, that's the signal, not the verdict.

SACA 3 — Legacy Plan Starter. Will summary, beneficiaries, letters to your family. AI drafts; the lawyer signs; never paste account numbers.

Going Further. The 7 daily drills live under "Optional depth."

One week, one sail: the Nightly Gratitude Journal.

*Sail of the Week: The Nightly Gratitude Journal (the 7th sail) · Psalm 92:1–2 · Rule: ONE SACA completes the week.

What you need: your iPhone, 10 minutes Monday, 60 seconds a night. This sail outlives the bootcamp — that's the point.

MONDAY — Set the 9:00 send (10 min)

- 1. Shortcuts → Automation → + → Time of Day → 9:00 PM, Daily → Show Notification: "What's one thing from today you're thankful for?"
- 2. Create the journal: one note titled "Gratitude" (or a Habitify habit). One line a night lives there.

EVERY NIGHT — One line (60 seconds)

- 3. When the 9:00 notification lands: write ONE line naming what God did today. No essays.

SABBATH — Read the week back

- 4. Paste the week into Claude: "Read my week of gratitude back to me. What was God doing?"
- 5. Thank Him out loud. Bring one entry to the dinner table.
- 6. Mark the Chart: SACA 2 — The Nightly Gratitude Journal → week complete. If all 7 weeks have landed, the commissioning unlocks — walk one brother through one thing you learned.

THE LINE TO HOLD

The 5:25 prayer asks; the 9:00 journal thanks. Ask and thank, every day. — "It is good to give thanks to the LORD... and your faithfulness by night." (Psalm 92:1–2, a psalm written for the Sabbath)

Want more this week? (all optional — the week is already complete)

SACA 1 — Plan Your Sabbath. A 24-hour disconnect protocol, on paper: what's in, what's out, where the phone sleeps. First Sabbath this week.

SACA 3 — Teach One Person One Thing. Walk one brother through one thing you learned. Watch him do it once. Multiplication is the commission.

Going Further. Saturday Captain's Audit; the 7 daily drills live under "Optional depth."
