

10-Min Scripture Study, You Lead

Claude is a study partner. Not a commentary. Not a pastor.

Most men outsource Bible study to a pastor. This task flips that. You pick the passage. You ask the questions. Claude is a fellow student.

Action checklist

- Pick a short passage — 5–15 verses. Something you've been sitting in.
- Read it aloud, slowly, twice. No screens.
- Then open Claude. Use it ONLY for:
 - Historical / cultural context (who, when, why written)
 - Cross-references you should look up next
 - Original-language word notes
- DO NOT ask Claude what it means for your life. That's your work and the Spirit's.
- Write your own one-sentence application. That's the artifact.

THE LINE

AI is a research partner. The Spirit is the teacher. Confuse the two and you'll trade communion for content.

Scripture sit

Joshua 1:8 — "This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night." Meditation is the captain's work, not the AI's.

What I noticed

Captain's next move
