

Write Your 5-Year Captain's Vision

One paragraph each: marriage, fathering, body, money, spirit.

A captain who can't say where the ship is going won't notice when it drifts. Use AI as the rough draft. You cut, you sign, you keep.

Action checklist

- Ask Claude to draft one paragraph for each domain:
 - Marriage — what does it look like 5 years from now?
 - Fathering — what kind of father will your kids describe?
 - Body — what physical state are you in?
 - Money — what's your financial position?
 - Spirit — what's your walk with God?
- Read each paragraph aloud. Cut every line that's a wish but not a decision.
- Re-write the survivors in your own words. AI drafts. You sign.
- Save it. Re-read it the first day of every month for 5 years.

WHY THIS MATTERS

A man without a written vision is steered by the most recent email. Write it down so the day can't move you.

Scripture sit

Proverbs 29:18 — "Where there is no vision, the people perish." Including the captain himself.

What I noticed

Captain's next move
